

How Detailed Must The Information Be?

You must provide information on any asset or debt owned by you, your spouse or the two of you together (community). If you do not know the exact value of the item you may estimate the value or state "unknown" only if you have no knowledge or estimate the value. You do not need to attach statements or titles to the Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure.

You must also complete the Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) for your income and expense, not your spouse's.

NOTE: If you are requesting support, you will need to file an original Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) with the court. You may file the Income and Expense in the Disclosure for this purpose.